TONKIN GULF RESOLUTION (1964)

124

H. J. Res. 1145 PUBLIC LAW 88-408

Eighty-eighth Congress of the United States of America
AT THE SECOND SESSION

Began and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four

Joint Resolution

To promote the maintenance of international peace and security in southeast Asia.

Whereas several units of the Communist regime in Vietnam, in violation of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of international law, have deliberately and repeatedly attacked United States naval vessels in the Gulf of Tonkin and in the South China Sea, and have thereby created a serious threat to international peace; and

Whereas these attacks are part of a deliberate and systematic campaign of aggression that the Communist regime in North Vietnam has been waging against the people of South Vietnam, and has joined with them in the collective defense of their freedom; and

Whereas the United States is assisting the peoples of southeast Asia to protect their freedom and has no territorial, military or political ambitions in that area, but desires only that those peoples should be left in peace to work out their own destinies in their own way; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress approves and supports the action of the President in the use of armed forces in southeast Asia to protect the freedom of that area, and to prevent further aggression, and to take all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression.

Sec. 2. The United States hereby declares its policy to oppose aggression and to promote the maintenance of international peace and security in southeast Asia. Consistent with the Constitution of the United States and the Charter of the United Nations and in accordance with the principles of the United States Policy Statement on Vietnam, the United States is, therefore, prepared, as the President determines, to take all necessary steps, including the use of armed force, to assist any member of the Southeast Asian Treaty Organization that may request assistance in defense of its freedom.

Sec. 3. This resolution shall expire when the President shall determine that the peace and security of the area have been restored by international conditions created by action of the United Nations or otherwise, except that it may be terminated earlier by concurrent resolution of the Congress.

UN not immune to criticism

A report by the ultra-establishment Council on Foreign Relations says criticism of the United Nations is unwarranted and hurts America's reputation in the international community. This proclamation of so-called experts is a clumsy attempt to silence calls to reform a runaway bureaucracy.

Both the Clinton administration and Congress are faulted for trashing the United Nations, which, it is contended, has become a scapegoat for our own foreign policy failures.

The report is nearly apoplectic about Washington's decision to veto a second term for Secretary General Boutros Boutros-Ghali. Pay up (our delinquent dues) and shut up; that's the report's message.

The council's manifesto is typical of a mindset among foreign-policy fuzzy thinkers who worship world government and view complaints about the glass house at Turtle Bay as a threat to international stability.

the total, we have every right to question why and how our money is spent.

Particularly under Boutros-Ghali, the United Nations has become extravagant and intrusive. Its international conferences are annual excuses for UN bureaucrats to party in exotic locales. That is, when they're not cooking up and propagandizing kooky causes like income redistribution and the "new world information order" and other schemes everyone else knows to be worthless.

Apparently, there's nothing too trivial or foolish not to rate a United Nations agency. There is even a UN Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space which has ordered member nations to report all alien contacts directly to it. Beam them up, Scotty.

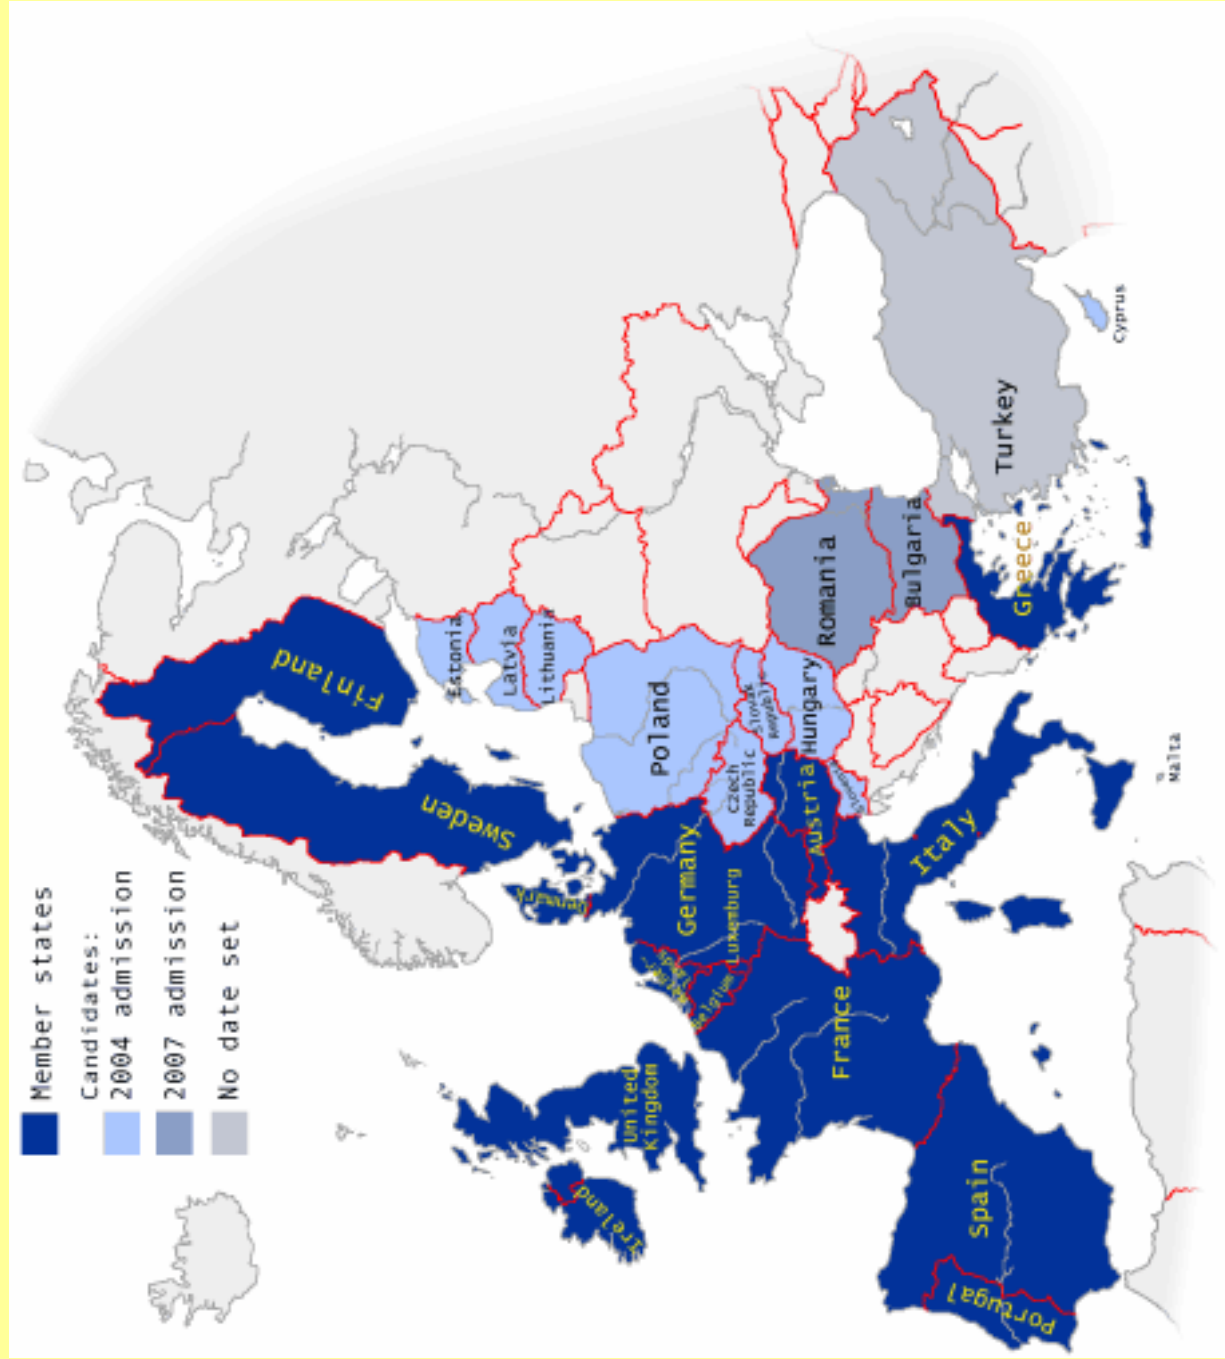

United Nations peacekeeping operations (many as ill-executed as they are ill-conceived) are a growing burden with little results to show. Costs have spiraled from $230 million in 1988 to $3.6 billion in “foreign-policy fuzzy thinkers who worship world government.”

HOW DID THE FEDERAL RESERVE GET STARTED?

JEKYLL ISLAND

Courtesy of The Forbes Archives. © 2002 - All Rights Reserved

“There was an occasion near the close of 1910 when I was as secretive, indeed as furtive, as any conspirator. I do not feel it is any exaggeration to speak of our secret expedition to Jekyll Island as the occasion of the actual conception of the Federal Reserve System. We were told to leave our last names behind us. We were told further that we should avoid dining together on the night of our departure. We were instructed to come one at a time and as unobtrusively as possible to the terminal of the New Jersey littoral of the Hudson, where Senator Aldrich's private car would be in readiness, attached to the rear end of the train for the South. Once aboard the private car, we began to observe the taboo that had been fixed on last names. Discovery, we knew, simply must not happen. If it were to be discovered that our particular group had got together and written a banking bill, that bill would have no chance whatever of passage by Congress."

When the President signs this act the invisible government by the money power, proven to exist by the money trust investigation, will be legalized. The money power overawes the legislative and executive forces of the nation. I have seen these forces exerted during the different stages of this bill.

From now on depressions will be scientifically created. The new law will create inflation whenever the trust wants inflation. If the trust can get a period of inflation, they figure they can unload stocks on the people at high prices during the excitement and then bring on a panic and buy them back at low prices. The people may not know it immediately, but the day of reckoning is only a few years removed.”

First Federal Reserve Audit Reveals Trillions in Secret Bailouts
Matthew Cardinale
Inter Press Service

Sun, 28 Aug 2011 00:00 CDT

© WikipediaAtlanta, Georgia: The first-ever audit of the U.S. Federal Reserve has revealed 16 trillion dollars in secret bank bailouts and has raised more questions about the quasi-private agency's opaque operations.

"This is a clear case of socialism for the rich and rugged, you're-on-your-own individualism for everyone else," U.S. Senator Bernie Sanders, an Independent from Vermont, said in a statement.

The majority of loans were issues by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (FRBNY).

TONKIN GULF RESOLUTION (1964)

H. J. Res. 1145

PUBLIC LAW 88-408

Eighty-eighth Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Began and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four

Joint Resolution

To ensure the maintenance of international peace and security in southeast Asia.

Whereas naval units of the Communist regime in Vietnam, in violation of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of international law, have deliberately and repeatedly attacked United States naval vessels lawfully present in international waters; and have thereby created a serious threat to international peace; and

Whereas those attacks are part of a deliberate and systematic campaign of aggression that the Communist regime in North Vietnam has been waging against its neighbors and the nations joined with them in the collective defense of their freedom; and

Whereas the United States is assisting the peoples of southeast Asia to protect their freedom and has no territorial, military or political ambitions in that area, but desires only that these peoples should be left in peace to work out their own destinies in their own way: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress approve and supports the determination of the President, as Commander in Chief, to take all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression.

Sec. 2. The United States regards as vital to its national interest and to world peace the maintenance of international peace and security in southeast Asia. Consistent with the Constitution of the United States and the Charter of the United Nations and in accordance with its obligations under the Southeast Asia Collective Defense Treaty, the United States is, therefore, prepared, as the President determines, to take all necessary steps, including the use of armed force, to assist any member or protocol state of the Southeast Asia Collective Defense Treaty rounding assistance in defense of its freedom.

Sac. 3. This resolution shall expire when the President shall determine that the peace and security of the area is reasonably assured by international conditions created by action of the United Nations or otherwise, except that it may be terminated earlier by concurrent resolution of the Congress.

“We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time magazine, and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during these years. But the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government which will never again know war but only peace and prosperity.”
